

Northwestern Health Unit Patient Services

Services for health care providers

- Disease prevention resources
- Support infectious disease follow-up & control
- Animal bite consultation & prophylaxis for rabies
- Distribute immunization & monitor storage quality
- Immunization education
- Provide surveillance data on chronic & infectious diseases
- Education on Prescription for Exercise
- Health care provider section on NWHU website

Children

- Preschool Speech and Language assessment & intervention
- Blind and low vision services
- Dental health services (screening, prevention & treatment)
- Positive parenting supports & programs
- Early childhood screening & assessment

Prenatal and Post partum

- Prenatal education
- Screening and assessment
- Preparation for parenting
- HBHC
- Breastfeeding support
- Baby food making
- Feeding families on a budget
- Parenting programs

All patients

- Vaccinations
- Travel clinics
- Diabetes prevention programs
- Food Skills Programming
- Needle exchange program
- Dental services
- Smoking Cessation Counseling
- Physical activity programs
- Naloxone program
- Resources on a variety of topics

Environmental health

- Tick submissions
- Lyme disease & West Nile Virus information
- Foodborne & waterborne illness follow-up

Sexual health

- Sexual health clinics
- Contraception, emergency contraception, pregnancy testing & comprehensive pregnancy options counselling
- STI/BBI testing
- Free STI treatment

Northwestern
Health Unit

www.nwhu.on.ca

For more information about Northwestern Health Unit services
please call 1-800-830-5978